All new foster parents must attend an orientation. You will be contacted in regards to the date, time and location of this orientation. Additionally, while you are caring for the foster animal(s), we may call you from time to time to check on the animal's progress and address any concerns you may have⁴³.

As a foster parent, we want you to know that it is occasionally necessary to euthanize the animals that have been in your care. Although this is a last resort, it does occur sometimes. Although the animals are in your care, they still belong to the CSPCA.

By signing this form you agree to the above statements and certify that the answers you have giving are true:
